REPORT ON THE 100TH REUNION AUGUST 14-16, 2009

The 100th Annual Wilson Reunion was held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, August 14 - 16, 2009 in Moravia, Iowa. A barbeque was held at the new Honey Creek Resort outside Moravia on Friday night, followed by a Memorial Service to remember Wilson ancestors. A banquet was held Saturday night at the Appanoose Country Club in Centerville, IA on Saturday night. Two Hundred attended both nights. A traditional carry-in meal was served shortly after the noon whistle. Three Hundred twelve attended the traditional potluck dinner in the Moravia City Park on Sunday. Special recognition was made at the banquet of reunion organizers: John Wilson, Dana Moritz, Rachel Hoffman, and others that assisted them.

Election of officers was held. This year’s slate of officers is: Craig and Steve Cloyed were elected as Co- President’s; Patti Boland, Vice President; Sharon Penfield, Treasurer; and Kerry Wilson, Secretary. Following a brief business meeting and treasurer’s report attendees enjoyed Ice Cream that was served for desert at 2:00 P.M.

It has been suggested that we continue our “traditional reunion” with a potluck dinner in the Moravia Square on the Sunday closest to the 16th of August for the next 4 years, with an “expanded reunion” similar to the 100th reunion, once every 5 years.
